Guarantees: We are convinced that our guarantees are the best value packages you can buy... anywhere... bar none! But, we are well aware that there is no better advertisement than a satisfied customer and nothing worse than a dissatisfied one. With this in mind, we would remind you that if you're not happy with our guarantee package within 45 days of purchase just ask for a full refund - no questions asked. After 45 days, providing no claim has been made, you can also terminate the agreement and receive a pro-rata refund. Furthermore, we would like to point out that you obviously do not need to purchase an extended guarantee at the same time you purchase your electrical goods and are entitled to shop around.
